Reception to follow. All are invited to attend.

Why do we say what we say and do what we do at Mass?

A 5-week study of the Mass entitled “A Biblical Walk Through the Mass” will be held on Thursday nights from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. at Most Holy Trinity Church in Pass Christian starting on July 16th. This study explores how the words and gestures of the Mass have their roots in the Bible, and explains their profound significance. You will learn why we say what we say and why we do what we do. You will understand the Mass like never before.

To register please call Terry Waltman at 228-466-9951 or e-mail tdwaltman@gmail.com. The cost of materials is $30. The deadline for registration is June 25 to allow for delivery of the study materials by July 16. This study will allow you to see the words and gestures of the Mass in a new light, leading you to a richer, more fruitful worship experience. Space is limited!
